W women & their work

Come slowly—E'en!
Lips unused to Thee—
Bashful—sip thy Jessamines
As the fainting Bee—

Reaching late his flower,
Round her chamber hums—
Counts his nectars—
Enters—and is lost in Balms.

Emily Dickinson

You're Wanted

Join us at Women & Their Work's annual spring bacchanal.

This year's theme: The Bosch Bash, an ode to Hieronymus and his seminal 15th century triptych, "The Garden of Earthly Delights."

Inspiration abounds in this panoply of fantastical animals, oversized fruit and hybrid formations! Partygoers can expect specialty cocktails; decadent treats; an Elysian performance; an art auction; an art market full of Bosch-inspired works; a lavish photo booth; celestial sounds; and more...

SUGGESTED ATTIRE: HEDONISTIC OR HYBRID.

(The event Facebook page will feature a lookbook for inspiration closer to the date.)
