

Paradise Bloom

Reading List

Paradise Bloom is a group exhibition featuring the work of Anahita Bradberry, Jessica Carolina González, Naomi Lemus, and Alexis Pye organized by guest curator Ashley DeHoyos Sauder. The exhibition examines the idea and definition of “paradise” by asking What is paradise? and Who creates it?

Discover texts below that inspired the exhibition, from the curatorial vision to the artist's process.

ASHLEY DEHOYOS SAUDER, curator

Belonging: A Culture of Place

bell hooks

Emergent Strategy: Shaping Change, Changing Worlds

Adrienne Maree Brown

Fresh Banana Leaves - Healing Indigenous Landscapes through Indigenous science

Jessica Hernandez

On the Necessities of Gardening: An ABC of Art, Botany and Cultivation

edited by Laurie Cluitmans

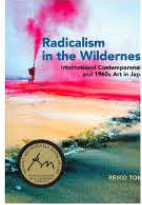

PostColonial Love Poem

Natalie Diaz

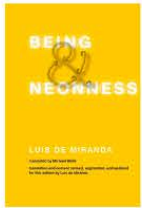

Paradise Bloom

ANAHITA BRADBERRY, artist

Radicalism in the Wilderness

Reiko Tomii

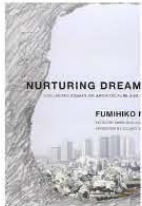

Being & Neonnness

Luis de Miranda

Dreamlands: Immersive Cinema and Art, 1905-2016, exhibition catalogue organized by Chris Iles, Anne and Joel Ehrenkrantz Curator

Nurturing Dreams: Collected Essays on Architecture and the City

Fumihiko Maki

Hans Arp: Chance Form Language, exhibition catalogue

Julian Heynen

Paradise Bloom

JESSICA CAROLINA GONZÁLEZ, artist

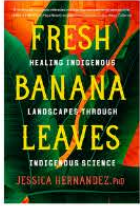

Emergent Strategy: Shaping Change, Changing Worlds

Adrienne Maree Brown

Paradise Bloom

JESSICA CAROLINA GONZÁLEZ, artist

Continued

Fresh Banana Leaves - Healing Indigenous Landscapes through Indigenous science

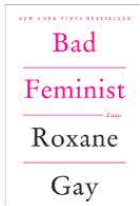

Jessica Hernandez Ph.D.

Visual Disobedience: The Geopolitics of Experimental Art in Central America 1990-Present

Kency Cornejo

ALEXIS PYE, artist

Bad Feminist

Roxane Gay

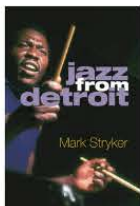

Black Romantic: The Studio Museum in Harlem

LeRonn Brooks, Valerie Cassel, Malik Gaines, Christine Y. Kim, Kelefa Sanneh, Lowery Stokes Sims, Franklin Sirmans, Regina L. Woods

Breakfast with Lucian

Gregory Grieg

Jazz from Detroit

Mark Stryker

Paradise Bloom

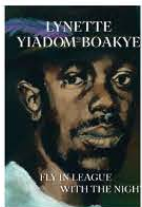

ALEXIS PYE, artist

Continued

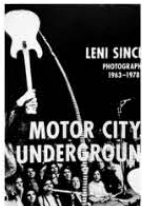

Kuniyoshi: Design and Entertainment in Japanese Woodblock Prints

Mio Wakita-Elis and Johannes Wieninger

Lynette Yiadom Boakye: Fly in league with the night edited by Isabella Maidment and Andrea Schlieker

Motor City Underground: Leni Sinclair Photographs 1963-1973

edited by Cary Loren and Lorraine Wild

Notes from the Woodshed

Jack Whitten

The Cornel West Reader

Cornel West