

2006: BS in Communication Disorders. Cortland, NY.

2009: MS in Speech-Language Pathology. Valhalla, NY.

2015-2016: Co-owner of Uptown Artists gallery. Anchorage, AK.

2015-2024: Owner of Bramble, AK: a small business specializing in original design and fabrication of "adventure bags".

2018-2024: Represented by Dos Manos. Anchorage, AK.

2018-2022: Represented by Girdwood Center for Visual Arts. Girdwood, AK.

2019: "Advice Booth" installation. Temporary Interactive Sculpture. Medium: wood. Dimensions: 8' height, 10' diameter. Burning Man event in Black Rock City, NV.

2019-2020: Represented by Strictly Local Gallery. Juneau, AK.

2019-2021: Represented by Kantishna Gallery. Denali, AK.

2019-2022: Represented by Resurrect Art. Seward, AK

2020: Girdwood Center for Visual Arts social media takeover (duration: one week).

2021: "Melvin" installation. Temporary Interactive Kinetic Sculpture. Medium: steel, organic material. Dimensions: 14' height, 10' diameter. Private event on Fox Island, AK.

2022-2023: Represented at Anne-Kales Gallery. Juneau, AK.

2022: "Sanctuary" installation. Temporary Interactive Space. Medium: fabric, metal, glass, water. Dimensions: 8' height, 20' length, 20' width. Sacred Acre festival in Ninilchik, AK.

2023: "Stillwater" installation. Temporary Interactive Space. Medium: fabric, paper lanterns. Dimensions: 9' height, 60' length, 40' width. Sacred Acre festival in Ninilchik, AK.

2023: Featured artist on Capital Chat, KINY radio. Juneau, AK.

2023: Featured artist in Southside Neighbors magazine. Anchorage, AK.

2023: Designer for Penny Royalty New Moon fashion show. Anchorage, AK.

2023-2024: Represented by Penny Royalty. Anchorage, AK.

2024-present: Owner of Meg Kelley Art: a small business specializing in original freehand art on upcycled materials.

2024: Featured artist on Indie Alaska (a PBS production), Season 13, Episode 1.

2024: Represented by Women & Their Work. Austin, TX.